A note from Coach Dave Mayotte, Spring Arbor University

Thank you for participating in the inaugural Bill Bockwitz Invitational hosted by Spring Arbor University. Bockwitz is the All-Time Winningest Golf Coach AND Basketball Coach, at Spring Arbor. It was Bockwitz who re-instated golf at SAU and was the reason I attended, and played golf for Spring Arbor.

Bockwitz made a deep impact on the lives of Spring Arbor University athletes as head coach of the men's basketball team from 1972 to 1988, and as head coach of the golf team from 1989 to 2004. Bockwitz also served SAU as an associate professor who instructed classes in kinesiology, motor development, sport psychology, and sport skills.

Bockwitz's career began at Beecher City (Ill.) High School. He went on to coach at Roberts Wesleyan College and George Williams College before completing his coaching career at SAU.

Among the many treasures of his coaching experience, Bockwitz says the lives and accomplishments of the young men he had the privilege to coach continue to amaze him. "God has blessed us with many 'sons,'" said Bockwitz. Several former players remember the impact Bockwitz made on their lives.

"Coach Bockwitz was one of the most inspiring people I have ever been around. He coached with a confident and humble sense of the gifts God had given him to lead young men. I cannot overstate how much his teachings of character and challenges to excellence have influenced me to achieve greatness on the court, as well as equip me for my calling to serve the church. His contribution to the lives of countless athletes and the larger Spring Arbor University family is remarkable, indeed," said Tom Kragt '79.

"Coach Bockwitz has influenced so many lives over the years in many ways. As a player, he coached me to a point where I reached potential. But more important is that he taught me life lessons to be a man and a person of faith," said Rob Miller '86.

"Coach Bockwitz provided leadership to his players and instilled in us the abilities to work hard on and off the court," said the late Trent Allen '89.

As a player for Bockwitz, I only slightly realized then what an important role he was playing in my life. This tournament is just the smallest way I can think of to just say "Thank You" for everything that 'Coach' did for us then, and still does today.

Bill and his wife, Karen (Boileau HS '60, '66, '96), have two children, Mike Bockwitz (1987-90) and Janis (Ron) Roach; and two grandsons, George and Graham.
